ALPINE FORECAST

CURRENT : Cloudy with sunny periods. High 10 °C. Light ridge wind. Freezing level: 3200 metres.

OUTLOOK : Whistler Alpine sees a steady run of cloudy skies with sunny breaks, light to moderate winds, and a warming trend from May 7–14. Early in the period, highs sit between 3–10 °C with occasional gusts, and the freezing level briefly dips to 2700 m on May 10. From May 11 onward, temperatures climb sharply to 15–16 °C, winds ease, and the freezing level rises dramatically to 4000 m by May 13, creating increasingly springlike alpine conditions.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The first upload for skiing and riding is now at 10:00am and the last upload from the valley is at 4:00pm. A mandatory download is in effect.

Expect variable and spring-like conditions on the mountain. Please ride with care, watch for exposed rocks and obstacles, and respect all signage. For emergencies, save Ski Patrol at 604-935-5555.

With the closure of Excalibur Gondola, Blackcomb Gondola is the only upload available for skiing and sightseeing. We recommend parking in Day Lots 1-5.

Crystal Ridge Express, Excalibur Gondola, and Excelsior Express have closed for the season. Crystal terrain will remain accessible via Glacier Express, which will operate until May 10, marking its final week of the season.

Please note that there will be no beginner terrain on Blackcomb from May 7, 2026, onwards. Access to Blackcomb Mountain for skiing and riding will be for intermediate to advanced riders only.

FREE WI-FI powered by TELUS
